Not Present: Ellie Bjorklund, Nick Hayden (Treasurer).

Location: Wedge Table.

Minutes

The March minutes were approved unanimously.

Marcy noted that the Nominations Committee has identified suitable candidates for the coming slate and concluded its work: President: Harlan Garbell; Vice President: Suzanne Perry; Treasurer: Nick Hayden, Secretary: David Guell; At Large: Ellie Bjorklund, Mitch Thompson, Jerry Smith.

Justin Bovee, member, discussed his experiences being raised in a conservative, religious family but becoming an atheist and humanist later in life. He also discussed his interests in data science and how they might be applied to humanist initiatives. And he discussed his willingness to produce video content, his use of the Discord communications services, and what he is doing for FUS.

Suzanne reported on work preparing for Day of Reason at the Capitol. Coffee tea water for 50 will cost $180; 50 bagels with cream cheese will be $75; equipment will be $193. Cost of banners is not yet estimated. Options were discussed extensively concerning which designs to use for new banners, tee shirts, stickers and handouts and placing orders for them in time for the Day of Reason.

The meeting adjourned at 9:39pm.
